

CLOS HAUT-PEYRAGUEY

First harvest in 1618

Clos Haut-Peyraguey was the smallest of the first-growth Sauternes to be classified in 1855. The estate covers 8.5 hectares, located on an enclosed parcel overlooking Château d'Yquem to the north-east. Old Occitan for "hill" or "promontory", the former barony of Peyraguey passed into the hands of the President of the Bordeaux Parliament in the 18th century before being ceded to Monsieur Lafaurie during the French Revolution. The Clos Haut-Peyraguey estate as we know it is an offshoot of this estate, formed in 1879 and sold to the Garbay-Pauly family some thirty-five years later. This first-growth Sauternes remained in the family until 2012, when it was welcomed into the Bernard Magrez family.
